FIRST SPORTS T-BALL PROGRAM PARENT/GUARDIAN CODE OF CONDUCT

- I will remember that children participate to have fun and that the game is for the kids, not adults.
- I will inform the coach of any physical or mental disability or ailment that may affect the safety of my child or the safety of others.
- I will learn the rules of the game and the policies of the league
- I understand that I am responsible for the conduct of my guests which include, but are not limited to, grandparents, siblings, aunts and uncles, family friends, etc.
- I (and my guests) will be a positive role model for my child and encourage sportsmanship by showing respect, courtesy, and positive support for all umpires, players, coaches, league officials and spectators at every game and practice.
- I (and my guests) will not engage in any kind of unsportsmanlike conduct with any umpire, coach, player, or parent such as booing and taunting; arguing umpire calls; or using profane language or gestures.
- I will teach my child to play by the rules and to resolve conflicts without resorting to hostility or violence.
- I will ensure that my child treat other players, coaches, officials, and spectators with respect.
- I will not ridicule or yell at my child or other participants for making a mistake or losing the competition.
- I will promote the emotional, physical, and spiritual well being of the players ahead of any personal desire I may have for my child's team to win.
- I will respect the officials and their authority during games and will never question, discuss, or confront coaches at the game fields and will take time to speak with coaches at an agreed upon time and place.
- I acknowledge that FirstSports is a ministry of First Baptist Church and will not hinder coaches and league officials from encouraging spiritual development in the players through prayers, and Bible devotions.
